The amendment received 10 May 2007 has been made of record. Claims 6-18 and 22-37 are pending.

The rejection under 35 USC 112 contained in the previous office action is withdrawn in view of applicants' amendments.

Claims 6, 7, 9-13, 15, 16, 25, 26 and 28-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ahmad et al '848.

This rejection is maintained substantially as set forth in the previous office action.

Applicants have argued that the compositions of the reference are not substantially anhydrous as defined by the instant application and that the reference does not disclose compositions that generate warmth upon exposure to moisture.

The examiner notes that the compositions of the reference are taught as suitably comprising up to 90% polyhydric alcohol. This teaching implicitly recites water content of less than 10%.

The examiner also notes that applicants attribute the generation of warmth by their compositions to the polyhydric alcohols contained therein. Since the compositions of the reference also contain these polyhydric alcohols, it is reasonable to assume that they, also, generate warmth. There is no requirement that patentees recognize or disclose an inherent property for an anticipation rejection to be valid.

Claims 8, 14, 17 and 27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 34-37 are allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
